QUESTION 1

SINGLE CHOICE

How many scored multiple-choice sections does the current LSAT contain?

- ☐ A Two
- ☒ B Three
- ☐ C Four
- ☐ D Five

ANSWER B

WHY The current LSAT contains three scored multiple-choice sections: two Logical Reasoning sections and one Reading Comprehension section, with a one unscored section used for future tests.

QUESTION 2

SINGLE CHOICE

What is the range of possible scaled scores on the LSAT multiple-choice sections?

- ☐ A 100 to 200
- ☒ B 120 to 180
- ☐ C 130 to 170
- ☐ D 140 to 180

ANSWER B

WHY LSAT multiple-choice scores are reported on a scale from 120 to 180, in 1-point increments.

QUESTION 3

SINGLE CHOICE

A Logical Reasoning question that asks which answer choice, if true, would most strengthen the argument is classified as which question type?

- ☐ A Assumption
- ☐ B Flaw
- ☒ C Strengthen
- ☐ D Inference

ANSWER C

WHY Questions that ask which answer would most strengthen the author's conclusion are explicitly categorized as 'Strengthen' questions on the LSAT.

QUESTION 4

SINGLE CHOICE

A Logical Reasoning question that asks what must be true based on the passage is asking for which of the following?

- ☐ A The author's main conclusion
- ☐ B An assumption of the argument
- ☒ C An inference that follows logically from the passage
- ☐ D A flaw in the reasoning

ANSWER C

WHY Questions asking what 'must be true' based on the passage are Inference questions. The correct answer is a statement that is logically guaranteed by the information given.

QUESTION 5

MULTIPLE CHOICE

Which of the following are recognized passage types on the LSAT Reading Comprehension section? (Choose two.)

- ☒ A Comparative passages presenting two related texts
- ☐ B Case law excerpts requiring legal analysis
- ☒ C Law-related passages drawn from humanities or social sciences
- ☐ D Experimental science laboratory reports requiring calculation

ANSWER A • C

WHY Reading Comprehension passages include comparative passages (two related texts) and law-related passages drawn from the humanities and social sciences. The LSAT does not include case law requiring legal analysis or science lab reports.

QUESTION 6

SINGLE CHOICE

A Logical Reasoning question that asks which answer choice most clearly exposes a problem with the argument's reasoning is asking for what?

- ☐ A An assumption
- ☒ B A flaw
- ☐ C A principle
- ☐ D A counterexample

ANSWER B

WHY Questions that ask which answer most clearly exposes a problem with the argument are 'Flaw' questions, requiring identification of the gap or error in reasoning.

QUESTION 7

SINGLE CHOICE

The LSAT Writing sample is administered how in relation to the multiple-choice sections?

- ☐ A Concurrently with the multiple-choice sections at the test center
- ☒ B As a separate component that may be completed on a different day
- ☐ C Immediately before the first multiple-choice section
- ☐ D Immediately after the last multiple-choice section

ANSWER B

WHY The LSAT Writing sample is administered separately from the multiple-choice sections, including for the Remote LSAT, and is completed using proctored software on a candidate's own equipment.

QUESTION 8

SINGLE CHOICE

An 'assumption' question on the LSAT asks the test-taker to identify which of the following?

- ☐ A A statement that would contradict the argument's conclusion
- ☒ B A statement that, if false, would undermine the argument
- ☐ C The evidence the author provides in support of the conclusion
- ☐ D A different conclusion that the evidence would better support

ANSWER B

WHY An assumption is an unstated premise on which the argument depends. If the assumption were false, the argument would fall apart, so choice B correctly describes an assumption question.

QUESTION 9

SINGLE CHOICE

A Reading Comprehension question that asks primarily about the author's attitude or tone is best classified as what type of question?

- ☐ A Global
- ☐ B Inference
- ☒ C Tone/attitude
- ☐ D Function

ANSWER C

WHY Questions focused on the author's attitude, tone, or perspective are categorized as Tone/Attitude questions. These require identifying how the author feels about the subject, not just what is said.
