QUESTION 1

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a woman say on the phone: 'Hi Mark, it's Lisa. Listen, I'm stuck in traffic on the M6 and I don't think I'm going to make it to the 2 o'clock meeting. Could you possibly start without me and fill me in later?' What is the main purpose of the call?

- ☐ A To apologize for missing the meeting entirely
- ☒ B To ask Mark to begin the meeting without her and update her afterwards
- ☐ C To invite Mark to a meeting at a different time
- ☐ D To ask Mark for directions to the meeting venue

ANSWER B

WHY Lisa clearly states she is delayed in traffic and asks Mark to start the meeting without her and 'fill me in later', which makes B the correct answer. A is incorrect because she does not say she will miss the meeting entirely. C and D introduce information not mentioned in the audio.

QUESTION 2

SINGLE CHOICE

You overhear two people talking. The first says: 'Mum, I'm home! I got that book you asked me to pick up from the library.' The second replies: 'Oh lovely, love. How much did it cost? And did they have any late fees on my card?' What is the relationship between the two speakers?

- ☐ A They are work colleagues
- ☐ B They are a librarian and a customer
- ☒ C They are mother and child
- ☐ D They are old friends greeting each other

ANSWER C

WHY The first speaker addresses the second as 'Mum', and the second responds affectionately with 'love', confirming a mother-and-child relationship. The other options are inconsistent with the terms used.

QUESTION 3

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a woman say to a coworker: 'Honestly, moving the deadline up by a week is going to be really tough for our team. We've barely finished the first round of testing.' How does the woman feel about the new deadline?

- ☐ A She is confident the team can meet it easily
- ☒ B She is worried that the team will struggle to meet it
- ☐ C She is indifferent because it does not affect her
- ☐ D She is pleased because it gives her less work

ANSWER B

WHY The phrase 'going to be really tough' and the reference to barely finishing the first round of testing clearly show that the woman is concerned and believes the new deadline will be difficult to meet.

QUESTION 4

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a woman talking about her new job: 'I only started last week, so I'm still finding my way around the office. The people are really friendly, though, and my manager has been incredibly supportive, which makes a huge difference.' How does the speaker feel about her new job so far?

- ☐ A She is overwhelmed and wishes she had not changed jobs
- ☐ B She is disappointed with her coworkers and manager
- ☒ C She is cautiously optimistic because the environment is supportive
- ☐ D She is completely sure the job is perfect in every way

ANSWER C

WHY The speaker acknowledges she is still adjusting ('still finding my way around'), but she highlights positive aspects: 'really friendly' people and an 'incredibly supportive' manager. This combination of ongoing adjustment with positive impressions reflects cautiously optimistic, rather than negative (A, B) or absolutely certain (D).

QUESTION 5

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a teacher say: 'You need to hand in your essays by Friday, no exceptions.' What does 'hand in' mean?

- ☐ A Lift up
- ☒ B Submit
- ☐ C Destroy
- ☐ D Share with a friend

ANSWER B

WHY In an academic context, 'hand in' means 'submit' an assignment. The context of an essay and a deadline makes this meaning clear.

QUESTION 6

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a short news report: 'The new Riverside Bridge, which connects the east and west sides of the city, is scheduled to open to vehicle traffic on the first of next month. Pedestrians and cyclists will be able to use the bridge one week earlier, starting on the twenty-fourth.' According to the report, when will pedestrians first be able to use the bridge?

- ☐ A On the first of next month
- ☒ B On the twenty-fourth of this month
- ☐ C One week after vehicle traffic begins
- ☐ D On the same day as vehicle traffic begins

ANSWER B

WHY The report states that pedestrians and cyclists can use the bridge one week before vehicles, beginning on the twenty-fourth. This directly answers the question.
