QUESTION 1

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a woman giving a short talk to a group of new employees: 'Welcome, everyone. Over the next two days, we'll be covering everything you need to know about our customer service procedures, our internal systems, and the company's core values. There'll be a short break at 11, and lunch is provided in the cafeteria on the third floor. Please make sure you've signed in at reception.' Where will lunch be served?

- ☐ A In the main meeting room
- ☐ B On the second floor near reception
- ☒ C In the cafeteria on the third floor
- ☐ D At a nearby restaurant

ANSWER C

WHY The speaker directly states that lunch is provided 'in the cafeteria on the third floor'. The other options either confuse the floor number or invent a location not mentioned.

QUESTION 2

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a woman say to her colleague: 'Could you do me a huge favor and cover the front desk for about ten minutes? I just need to grab a coffee.' What does she mean by 'cover the front desk'?

- ☐ A Clean the front desk thoroughly
- ☐ B Move something to cover the front desk
- ☒ C Take responsibility for the front desk temporarily
- ☐ D Decorate the front desk area

ANSWER C

WHY In workplace English, 'cover the front desk' is an idiomatic expression meaning to take over the duties at the front desk temporarily while someone else is away. The other options are literal interpretations that do not fit the context.

QUESTION 3

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a man say to a receptionist: 'Hi, I have an appointment with Dr. Patel at three, but I just realized I left my insurance card at home. Is there anything we can do about that?' What is the man mainly trying to do?

- ☐ A Cancel his appointment with Dr. Patel
- ☐ B Complain about the receptionist's service
- ☒ C Ask for help because he forgot his insurance card
- ☐ D Request a different time for his appointment

ANSWER C

WHY The speaker explicitly states he has an appointment at three and that he 'left his insurance card at home,' then asks 'Is there anything we can do about that?' His main purpose is to seek a solution to the forgotten card. He does not cancel (A), complain (B), or request a new time (D).

QUESTION 4

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a man giving a book review on the radio: 'I had high hopes for this novel because I loved the author's first book, but unfortunately the characters felt flat, and the ending wrapped things up way too quickly. I wouldn't recommend it.' What is the man's overall opinion of the novel?

- ☐ A He thinks it is his favorite book of the year
- ☐ B He believes it is much better than the author's first book
- ☐ C He considers it the best novel of the decade
- ☒ D He is disappointed and does not recommend it

ANSWER D

WHY The man mentions flat characters, a rushed ending, and explicitly says he would not recommend the book. His overall opinion is one of disappointment.

QUESTION 5

MULTIPLE CHOICE

You hear a man say: 'We're flying out to Edinburgh on the morning of the fifteenth and coming back on the evening of the twenty-second, so that's a full week. The flight was actually cheaper than the train, believe it or not - about eighty-nine pounds return each.' Which TWO pieces of information does the speaker give?

- ☒ A The destination is Edinburgh
- ☐ B They are travelling by train
- ☒ C The return flight costs eighty-nine pounds
- ☐ D They return on the fifteenth

ANSWER A - C

WHY The speaker states the destination is Edinburgh (A) and that the return flight is eighty-nine pounds (C). B is incorrect because he explicitly says the flight was cheaper than the train, meaning they are flying. D is incorrect because the fifteenth is the outbound date, not the return.

QUESTION 6

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a woman talking about her new job: 'I only started last week, so I'm still finding my way around the office. The people are really friendly, though, and my manager has been incredibly supportive, which makes a huge difference.' How does the speaker feel about her new job so far?

- ☐ A She is overwhelmed and wishes she had not changed jobs
- ☐ B She is disappointed with her coworkers and manager
- ☒ C She is cautiously optimistic because the environment is supportive
- ☐ D She is completely sure the job is perfect in every way

ANSWER C

WHY The speaker acknowledges she is still adjusting ('still finding my way around'), but she highlights positive aspects: 'really friendly' people and an 'incredibly supportive' manager. This combination of ongoing adjustment with positive impressions reflects cautiously optimistic, rather than negative (A, B) or absolutely certain (D).

QUESTION 7

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a short radio report: 'Researchers at Greenfield University say they have successfully tested a small solar-powered device that can purify water in remote areas. The team believes the technology could be especially useful in regions with limited access to clean drinking water.' What is the report mainly about?

- ☐ A The cost of building solar panels at the university
- ☒ B A new water-purifying technology that uses solar power
- ☐ C A problem with water supplies at Greenfield University
- ☐ D A plan to replace traditional electricity in remote villages

ANSWER B

WHY The report focuses on a 'solar-powered device that can purify water in remote areas,' which is exactly a new water-purifying technology powered by the sun. It does not focus on costs (A), problems at the university (C), or replacing electricity broadly (D).

QUESTION 8

SINGLE CHOICE

You hear a man at a car rental desk say: 'I'd like to pick up the reservation under the name Henderson. We booked a mid-size SUV for five days, but if you have anything larger available, we'd be happy to pay the difference.' What is the man mainly trying to do?

- ☐ A Cancel a previous car reservation
- ☒ B Collect a reserved vehicle and possibly upgrade it
- ☐ C Complain about a charge on his account
- ☐ D Return a vehicle he rented earlier

ANSWER B

WHY The man identifies himself by a reservation name and asks to pick it up, while also expressing willingness to upgrade for an additional fee. The main purpose is therefore to collect the reserved car and inquire about an upgrade.
