QUESTION 1

SINGLE CHOICE

Which description best matches MET Reading Part 4?

- ☐ A A short cloze text with word choices
- ☐ B A set of short texts to match to topics
- ☒ C A longer text followed by several multiple-choice questions
- ☐ D A short message with gaps for missing sentences

ANSWER C

WHY MET Reading Part 4 presents a longer, more complex text followed by a set of multiple-choice questions that test detailed comprehension and inference.

QUESTION 2

SINGLE CHOICE

In MET Writing Part 2, candidates are required to write a short essay in response to a short text and a writing prompt. Approximately how many words should the response contain?

- ☐ A About 30-40 words
- ☐ B About 50-70 words
- ☒ C About 120-150 words
- ☐ D About 250-300 words

ANSWER C

WHY MET Writing Part 2 asks candidates to write a short essay of approximately 120-150 words in response to a short input text and a prompt. The 30-40 word range corresponds to Part 1, not Part 2.

QUESTION 3

SINGLE CHOICE

How many parts does the MET Speaking section contain?

- ☐ A Two parts
- ☒ B Three parts
- ☐ C Four parts
- ☐ D Five parts

ANSWER B

WHY The MET Speaking section consists of three parts. Each part has a different format, ranging from short personal-style questions to extended speaking on a topic.

QUESTION 4

SINGLE CHOICE

How many parts does the MET Writing section contain, and what is the general focus of each?

- ☒ A Two parts: a short message and a short essay
- ☐ B Two parts: a summary and an essay
- ☐ C Three parts: a message, an essay, and a summary
- ☐ D One part: a single extended essay

ANSWER A

WHY The MET Writing section has two parts. Part 1 requires a short written message (such as a note, email, or reply) and Part 2 requires a short essay responding to a short text and a writing prompt.

QUESTION 5

SINGLE CHOICE

What is the format of MET Reading Part 3?

- ☐ A A longer text followed by multiple-choice questions
- ☒ B Several short texts matched to situations or topics
- ☐ C A cloze text with missing words
- ☐ D A short message with sentence gaps

ANSWER B

WHY MET Reading Part 3 contains several short texts (for example, notices, messages, articles) that candidates must match to situations, speakers, or topics listed in the task.

QUESTION 6

SINGLE CHOICE

In MET Listening Part 3, candidates listen to longer monologues such as talks, lectures, or announcements. What is the task format for each item in this part?

- ☐ A Match each monologue to one of six possible speakers or contexts.
- ☒ B Choose the correct answer from three options for each question after the monologue.
- ☐ C Fill in missing words in a written summary while listening.
- ☐ D Write a short paragraph response based on the monologue.

ANSWER B

WHY MET Listening Part 3 consists of longer monologues followed by questions, each with three written answer options. Candidates choose one option per question. Matching (Part 2) and gap-fill / writing tasks do not appear in Part 3.

QUESTION 7

SINGLE CHOICE

Which description best matches MET Listening Part 1?

- ☒ A Several short conversations with one question each
- ☐ B Short monologues to match to contexts
- ☐ C One longer conversation and multiple questions
- ☐ D A lecture followed by six questions

ANSWER A

WHY MET Listening Part 1 consists of several short, independent conversations, each accompanied by one three-option multiple-choice question. This part focuses on listening for the gist and identifying key information in everyday exchanges.

QUESTION 8

SINGLE CHOICE

In MET Writing Part 1, candidates read a short prompt and write a short message. According to the published MET Test Center format, what is the typical length expected for this written message?

- ☐ A Around 50-70 words
- ☒ B Around 100-150 words
- ☐ C Around 150-200 words
- ☐ D Around 200-250 words

ANSWER B

WHY MET Writing Part 1 requires candidates to produce a short message (for example, an email, note, or short response to a prompt) of approximately 100-150 words. Option A is too short, and the C and D word counts correspond to the longer Writing Part 2 essay, not Part 1.
